

Friends of Women's World Banking, India (FWWB, I) a non-profit Trust is in the process of setting up a Non Banking Finance Company. FWWB operates as a 'wholesale' providing loan to micro finance institutions across India. In order to reach out to more number of new micro finance institutions and extend larger support to its ongoing partner MFIs it is forming a NBFC.

FWWB, India is looking for professional as "Project Manager-Transformation" to be part of the Senior Management Team working on this initiative. We are looking for individuals with:

- Professional experience of 5+ years post qualifications in a reputed Corporate, Financial Institution or not-for-profit organization where s/he has been responsible for Financial Management functions
- Understanding nuances of the Development/ NGO sector
- Excellent communication skills with the ability to build & sustain successful partnerships.
- Innovative in approach to the management of objectives

- The position requires well qualified professional (MBA-Finance/ Chartered Accountant / Company Secretary)

Interested candidates are requested to go through the website www.fwwbindia.org

Detailed terms of reference for the position is available on request. The position is based at Ahmedabad, Gujarat. In this regard please send mail addressed to Ms. Shruti Gonsalves, Head Operations, FWWB on the below mentioned Email

The applications along with detailed curriculum vitae should be mailed to FWWB, India at fwwb@fwwbindia.org no later than 31st July 2008.

Selected candidate should be able to join the FWWB team latest by 1st week of September 2008.