

Job Title	:	Master Trainer
Location	:	Bhavnagar, Gujarat
Experience Required	:	2-3 Years relevant experience in development sector
Educational Qualification	:	Postgraduate or Graduate with relevant exposure preferably in Agriculture or Rural development. • Field Implementation • Community Mobilization • FPO Capacity Building • Sustainable Agriculture
Skills Required	:	• Climate Resilience • Farmer Field School Approach • Baseline Survey & Data Collection • Monitoring & Reporting • Enterprise Development • Stakeholder Engagement
Remuneration	:	As per market standards
Expected Date of Joining	:	At the earliest
Apply at	:	careers@fwwbindia.org

Key Responsibilities

- Responsible for planning and designing the fieldwork, in consultation with your reporting officer and based on the objectives & deliverables of the project.
- Conduct research activities, diagnostic assessments, Business planning for FPOs, Micro-enterprises, carry out training of trainers, help in design and conduct of pilots, assist FPO Board and Management on different activities under the project mandate.
- Mobilization of farmers and members of FPOs for awareness building.
- Strengthening of Farmers institutions – FIG at the village level and FPO/FPC at the block level
- Conduct required capacity building activities of Farmer, BoD members, Office Bearers, staff and other members of the FPO from time to time.
- Baseline study, collect data pertinent to present situation of farming by visiting the project area to understand the current state of target families
- Building a local relationship and liaising with partners, government organization, ag-techs and FPOs
- Conducting awareness sessions, Training and Meeting with Lead farmers and board members on sustainable and climate resilient agriculture practices.
- Participating in the project review meetings, sharing progress, constraints and challenges faced with the team on a regular basis
- Required to travel extensively within the project for baseline, data collection, capacity building of farmers and FPOs
- Any other project related activities as and when required and assigned by the organization.